Class Size: 4 students
Class meets once a week
Tuition $240/ 8 weeks

The instructor is Brett Bachus. He has been teaching piano to children and adults for over 35 years.

You will have lots of fun learning to play piano with other students. Lessons are planned to minimize your learning time - not too fast and not too slow. Beginners will start learning to read music with the first lesson and be able to play the first simple piece in just a few weeks. Students who already play will add new skills and begin using digital technology.

Please include the entire fee with this registration form for the class you have chosen. There are no make-ups for missed classes unless the instructor cancels. Bring or Mail registration form and check to:
